

Sermon Notes:

Facing Giants

1. 2 Corinthians 6:17 calls for _____ between the _____ and _____.
2. As the Israelites exhibited fear facing Goliath, God's people today sometimes become _____ and _____.
3. David's willingness to fight Goliath exhibited _____ as Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 7:7 that we each have our own _____ from God.
4. David declared, "The LORD, .. will _____." and 1 Corinthians 10:13 encourages us by saying God will provide a way of _____ from temptation.
5. As David refused Saul's armor, Galatians 6:4, 5 says, "...let every man _____ ... for every man shall _____.
6. Jesus said in Matthew 28:20, "I am _____."
7. We can, as David did, run to meet our foe when as Ephesians 6:15 says for us to have our feet shod with _____.
8. As the Philistines ran when Goliath fell, James 4:7 says _____ will run when we _____ him.
9. Even though David defeated Goliath, he later fought the giants of _____, _____, _____, _____, and _____.
10. We must realize that we face giants that are _____, _____ and _____ and must face our _____.
11. We can conquer our giants when we let _____.