

Sermon Notes:

Covenant Relationship with God

1. Romans 15:4 says that things that were written _____ are for our _____.
2. God's first covenant was with _____ and _____.
3. When God alone makes a covenant, man cannot _____.
4. 2 Peter 3:9 reminds us that God's _____ is for man's opportunity to _____.
5. In Genesis 12 we read of God's calling _____, promising that in this man _____ would be blessed.
6. According to Genesis 15:18, the covenant made with Abraham included that He promised Abraham _____.
7. The Israelites lost the lands that had been given to them but the _____ is still in effect.
8. Galatians 3:16 makes it clear that this promise was fulfilled through _____.
9. God's covenant with Israel is the first covenant where _____ makes a promise, too.
10. Exodus 24:7, 8 says the response of the Israelites to the covenant Moses delivered was, "All that the LORD has said _____, and we _____.
11. God's promised David that one of his _____ would always _____.
12. _____ fulfilled, and continues to fulfill this promise to David.
13. Jeremiah 31:31-34 speaks of the promise of a _____.
14. This covenant was to replace the _____.
15. Hebrews 9:13-16 speaks of _____ being the _____ of this new covenant, or testament, and that for the testament to come into effect there must first be _____.
16. One thing that we learn from all these covenants is that God is _____ in keeping promises.